NEW YORK, June 12, 2024 - Achelous Partners, LLC is pleased to announce that Prof. Dr. Sergi X. Trilla has been appointed as the European Representative in Spain. Prof. Trilla brings a wealth of experience and a proven track record in the healthcare and biopharmaceutical sectors.

"Prof. Trilla has extensive expertise in the life sciences industry and has developed strong client relationships over his 30-year career. Achelous Partners has completed numerous transactions across Europe, and Spain is a key growth market for us. Prof. Trilla's involvement will significantly enhance our ability to serve our clients in Spain and across Europe, while also identifying new global opportunities, including Latin America" said Mark Saunders, President of Achelous Partners.

Prof. Trilla joins Achelous Partners from trifermed, where he serves as Founder and President. With a focus on corporate strategy and business development, trifermed has been instrumental in transforming innovative ideas into market-ready solutions. Prof. Trilla's leadership and strategic vision have been critical in orchestrating over 200 global strategic partnerships and driving substantial growth in the healthcare sector.

"Achelous Partners is renowned for its M&A expertise in the global life science and healthcare sectors, and I am honored to join such a prestigious firm. I look forward to leveraging my network and experience to help our clients achieve their strategic and financial objectives. This new role will also enable me to extend my support to trifermed clients, assisting them in their M&A activities and ensuring they achieve their goals," said Prof. Trilla.

Achelous Partners, LLC is an independent investment bank internationally recognized for advising on global mergers and acquisitions within the life science and healthcare industries. The firm specializes in sell-side mandates, buy-side mandates, valuations, fairness opinions, restructurings, divestitures, and strategic advisory. Headquartered in New York, Achelous Partners serves a diverse global client base of life science and healthcare companies.
